

Who We Are

Central Illinois Business Publishers, Inc. (CIBP) prides itself on being central Illinois' foremost business, social and arts resource. Our readers are members of the "I" crowd—intelligent, informed, involved and inquisitive. These strong-minded leaders are involved in community, business and political issues and represent an affluent demographic whose success allows them to live the lives they enjoy.

Based in Peoria, Illinois, CIBP publishes InterBusiness Issues, art & society™ and Peoria Progress magazines. CIBP also publishes the weekly e-newsletter Central Illinois Perspective and sponsors the annual 40 Leaders Under Forty ceremony, a community recognition event for young leaders. Our magazines are respected resources, encouraging entrepreneurs and applauding Fortune 500 companies and small businesses alike for making central Illinois their home.

CIBP's newly redesigned website can be found at peoriomagazines.com. Its exciting look and user-friendly format allows visitors to view articles and columns currently featured in the magazines, search online archives, subscribe to our publications, obtain advertising information, find links to current advertisers, check out the latest e-newsletter and more. All of this with the click of a mouse!

CIBP was founded in 1989 by Jan Benson Wright and the late David C. Wright and has been solely owned by Jan Wright since 1997. CIBP is a member of the Peoria Area Chamber of Commerce, the East Peoria Chamber of Commerce, the Morton Chamber of Commerce, the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, the Better Business Bureau, the Economic Development Council for Central Illinois and the Peoria Area Convention & Visitors Bureau.
